- A comprehensive facilitator guide with DVD, PowerPoint presentation, tips on teaching the subject, model answers to activities, additional test questions and class material is available.

The Practical Guide to the ICDL 2007

Author: du Toit, Merwe
ISBN: 9781920364144

The Practical Guide to the ICDL - Office 2007 was written according to Syllabus 5 of the ICDL and covers Windows Vista, Internet Explorer 7 and Microsoft Office 2007. The manual is practical, very well explained and written by two of the most experienced authors of computer material in South Africa. A CD, with lots of exercises, accompanies the manual and will assist any end-user to master the many applications that is required to obtain the International Computer Driving License. Many educational Institutions across Southern Africa use our “Practical Guide” series with great affect. The Practical Guide to the ICDL 2007 is the latest addition to this highly popular series!

Xplore Series ICDL Office 2007 Courseware

Edited by David Vodhi
ISBN: 9781920203368

The Xplore Series ICDL Office 2007 Courseware book which has been accredited by the ICDL foundation and written according to the new ICDL Syllabus 5, provides an excellent study guide for anyone following the ICDL or similar end-user computing course at an institute of learning. Its extensive use of annotated screenshots, bulleted instructions rather than paragraphs of dry text, and the accompanying exercise CD help ease the internalisation of the subject matter. In addition, the layout and structure of the book makes it an ideal desktop reference for everyday users of Microsoft Office 2007 and Windows XP.

This book is printed in full colour.
